A high-angle, close-up photograph of a bowl of Vietnamese pho. The bowl is white and filled with a clear, yellowish-brown broth. Inside the bowl, there are several slices of tender, cooked beef, a few whole quail eggs, and a large portion of white rice noodles. The dish is garnished with fresh green herbs, sliced green onions, and sliced red and green chili peppers. A pair of wooden chopsticks with a red and white patterned handle is positioned across the top of the bowl, holding a large bundle of white rice noodles. In the background, there are other dishes: a plate of fried spring rolls, a small bowl of red dipping sauce, and a small bowl of sliced chili peppers. The entire scene is set on a dark wooden table.
